LCGH, Black N'zrene get DOH top awards

• The two and other fellow awardees are certified “green, safe and climate-resilient” health facilities in Region 1

The Department of Health–Ilocos Region conferred the green stars award to 12 different hospitals located in Pangasinan, Ilocos Sur and Ilocos Norte for having been certified as green, safe and climate-resilient health facilities. The awarding ceremony was held on June 16, 2023.

The recognition was based on the validation of the submitted Green Viability Assessment (GVA) Tool conducted by the Department of Health - Health Facility Development Bureau (HFDB) and the Regional Health Facility Development Unit (HFDU) last May 17 to June 1, 2023.

DOH Regional Director Paula Paz M. Sydiongco extended her gratitude to the hospitals that participated in the activity.

“Napakaimportante po sa amin ang inyong naging participation because it displayed your commitment and initiative towards making your hospitals energy-efficient and climate change resilient kasama na dito ang pag-pursue at pag-raise ng standards to ensure that your facilities are aligned with the (Pls. turn to page 5)

DA distributes P18M worth of agricultural interventions in Ilocos Norte for better farm production activities

A total of Php18,925,132 worth of agricultural interventions was distributed by the Department of Agriculture – Ilocos Region to various farmers’ associations in Ilocos Norte’s

1st and 2nd districts. The distribution took place today, June 13, at the Ilocos Norte Agriculture and Fisheries Extension Center (INAFEC) in Laoag City and at the DA - Ilocos Norte Research and Experiment Center (INREC) in Batac, Ilocos Norte.

The distribution ceremony was led by First District Representative Ferdinand Alexander (Pls. turn to page 5)

PBBM wants more cohesive approach in addressing hunger, indigency resident Ferdinand R. Marcos Jr. wants a “more cohesive” manner in addressing the problem of hunger and the indigency in the country, Health Secretary Ted Herbosa Jr. said on Tuesday.

Pres. Marcos Jr.

In a news briefing in Malacañang, Herbosa said the chief executive does not want a duplication in the feeding programs of the various government agencies, noting that a unified approach in tackling the major concerns of the country should be put in place.

“The President wanted a more cohesive approach (for) this problem of hunger and addressing the poor. And he was asking, ‘I don’t want duplication...’ kasi nga baka paulit-ulit lang iyong ibang agency nagpi-feeding program – mayroon sa LGU (local government unit), mayroon sa DepEd (Department of Education), mayroon sa DSWD (Department of Social Welfare and Development), mayroon sa DOH (Department of Health),” Herbosa said.

Over a thousand join DENR's coastal cleanup to mark World Oceans Day

Over 1,000 employees of the Department of Environment & Natural Resources (DENR) from its central office, regional and field offices, bureaus, and partner organizations joined simultaneous coastal cleanup activities nationwide on June 8 to mark World Oceans Day 2023 with the theme "Planet Ocean: Tides are Changing."

In the National Capital Region, DENR Secretary Antonia Loyzaga joined hundreds of volunteers in Manila Bay along SM by the Bay in Pasay City to highlight the need for concerted effort to protect oceans and marine life from waste and plastic pollution.

Coastal cleanup were also conducted in other areas of Manila Bay, including the Dolomite Beach, Mandamus Beach and Baseco area in Manila; Las Piñas-Parañaque Critical Habitat and Ecotourism; and Tanza Marine Tree Park in Navotas City.

As of writing, the combined trash collected during the cleanup reached almost 1,300 sacks, which consisted of single-use plastic bags, styrofoam, food packaging wastes, among others

"We hope that activities such as this will help us in managing the quality of our oceans," Loyzaga said.

Loyzaga added that the DENR considers plastic pollution and marine litter as critical issues.

"Our solid waste has reached our oceans. We need to combine this (coastal cleanup) with waste management on land so we can secure our oceans and our future here on land as well," the DENR chief stated.

World Oceans Day is an annual event to celebrate the value of oceans, which cover over 70 percent of the planet but have been in dire need of help in the past few decades and are likely to deteriorate much further in coming years without decisive intervention.

According to the International Union for Conservation of Nature, at least 14 million tons of plastic enter the ocean annually. It noted that 80 percent of all marine debris discovered in sediments from deep sea waters to surface waters is made up of plastic, making it the most prevalent sort of trash in the ocean.

To combat plastic pollution in the country, the DENR, under the leadership of Secretary Loyzaga, advocates for a circular economy where all plastic applications are reused, recycled, and responsibly managed during and after use while enabling a lower greenhouse gas emissions plastic economy.

World Oceans Day is celebrated annually on June 8 to raise awareness about the importance of the world's oceans and efforts to improve them since 1992, following the United Nations Conference on the Environment and Development in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

In 2008, the U.N. General Assembly decided that June 8 would be designated as "World Oceans Day" as of 2009. (Alaine Allanigue)

WORD ALIVE

Every Christian is an apostle

The old mentality wherein the laity were expected just to say "amen" and to "pray, pay and obey" has long been over.

As a result of the numerous charismatic seminars, some lay people I know, who attended such renewal activities, now preached in streets and restaurants. Entering restaurants, one would give "sermons" exhorting the waitresses to live moral and upright life.

Seeing him coming again, they would whisper: "Nandito na naman yong pari!" (Here comes the "priest again"!). He waxes eloquent especially when under the influence of the Holy Spirit, and sometimes, the unholy spirit! (Oh well, he's only human).

The lay empowerment under the Second Vatican Council has, indeed, made a tremendous boost to the church.

The gospel of this 11th Sunday relates about Jesus calling his first apostles--a band of simple fishermen. "They left everything"--their work, their boats, their families--and followed him (Lk 5,11). This formed the core group on which Christ founded his Church.

However, every Christian now is commissioned to the ministry of healing, preaching and teaching by virtue of his or her baptism.

The Decree on the Laity of Vatican II states: "Incorporated into Christ's Mystical Body through baptism and strengthened by the power of the Holy Spirit through confirmation, the laity are assigned to the apostolate by the Lord himself" (3).

(Note: Fr. San Luis hails from Laoag City. He served as President of Divine Word College of Laoag in the 1980s. His new turf is the Christ The King Seminary in Quezon City. Thank you, Father Bel for sharing your weekly column for the Ilocos Sentinel.—Editor)

How can you be an apostle and shepherd of Christ? You could participate in church works in your parish. Today there are numerous lay Catholics who sacrifice time, talent and treasure for the church, rendering services as lay ministers, lectors, collectors, choir members, catechists, social workers.

Then there are those involved in church organizations like the Legion of Mary, Knights of Columbus, Catholic Women's League as well as the renewal movements like the Marriage Encounter, Couples for Christ, and others.

The most basic and effective form of being a shepherd is the testimony of Christian living or witnessing to such gospel values as charity, justice, forgiveness,

WHAT AND WHO A FATHER REALLY IS:

A SPECIAL TRIBUTE TO ALL FATHERS

A man is traditionally considered a father if he can procreate and raise at least one child. He is also worthy of everyone's respect if he can provide his family not only with their basic necessities but also the occasional accoutrements that make them happy, at least for some time.

Such above-mentioned perceptions of being considered a father are quite traditional and are now being considered outdated, at least from my point of view as a modern man. The 21st century is no longer replete with Victorian and draconian notions and definitions of who a father and a mother are, because we now have different types of fathers according to civil status, sexual orientation, role in the family and society, and other similar criteria. Moreover, fathers are not limited to men because single mothers and transmen are also considered fathers.

I am quite glad that our society in this modern era is now accepting the fact that fathers come in different shapes and sizes. However, what remains is the fact that while there are some fathers who are nincompoops and douchebags, there are still so many fathers who are still willing to step up and take charge of their respective families, whether they are real fathers or stepfathers (or even foster fathers or father figures).

Who can be considered a father in its real sense? Could it be one who can procreate? Could it be one who is rich? Or could it one who has the fortitude to raise at least one child, whether it is his or not? And what is really a father, if we go back to what he (or she) essentially does even beyond expectations of him (or her)?

To give us a clear view of what and who a father really is, I will be sharing with you my poem, as originally written in Filipino:

ANO ANG TUNAY NA AMA?
by E.T. "Jet" Ramos, Jr.

Kay raming mga kalalakihan sa panahong kasalukuyan
Ang nagkakaroon ng anak kahit hindi pa hinog mula sa kabataan.
Kahit hindi lubos na handa sa pagharap sa mga hamon at pagsubok,
May mga kalalakiang napapakilos ng "bahala na" sa kabila ng mga dagok.

Hindi maiwasang may mga magkabayak na

nagkakawatak-watak
Dahil sa labis na mpgakamakasari at sa kawalan ng pagkukusang mag-alaga ng anak.
Sadyang kay sakit malaman at kay hapdi na maramdaman ng ilang mga kabataan
Na sila ang nagdurusa dahil sa kanilang mga ina't amang nauna sa kasalanan.

Bakit may mga kalalaking matipuno ngunit bahag ang buntot
Pagdating sa pananagutan nila sa pagbubuntis na kanilang idinulot?
Mahirap talagang arukin na may mga kalalaking tila tumatanggi na maging ama Sapagkat sila ay natatakot na mawalan ng panahon sa paglilimayon na parang binata.

Ano nga ba ang tunay na ama? Sino nga ba ang masasabi nating tunay na may kusa?
Sila nga ba ang mga kayang tumustos sa mga anak dahil sila'y nakaririwasa?
Sila rin ba ang mga nag-aambag ng magagandang mga punla sa kanilang mga sinta?
O sila ang may talinong taglay na kailan man ay hindi mawawalay sa isip nila?

Tunay na ama na maituturing ang mga lalaking marunong manindigan, Mga lalaking marunong maghanda, magsikap, at magsinop para sa kinabukasan.
Tunay na ama rin ang mga lalaking bagama't baog na maituturing sa kanila
Ay nagmamahal sa anak na hindi man kanila ay inaari at inaaruga nang sadya.

Para sa mga tulad ninyong ama, kayo'y huwaran sa bawat yugto ng inyong buhay Sapagkat pagmamahal, pag-aalaga, paggabay, at pagpapahalaga ang inyong taglay.
Kaming lahat ay bumabati at pumupuri sa inyo, maging tunay kayong ama o hindi, Dahil ang aming paghanga at paggalang sa inyo ay ilan lamang sa aming mga sukli.

GUESS WHAT, GUESS WHO!
GUESS WHAT: Rebuffing aspiring book authors and discriminating against academics from lesser-known universities and colleges are the repulsive acts of this major book publisher who specializes in textbooks, whether print or digital. My source, a brilliant teacher who has been rejected so many times, relayed to me that one of the editors of the publishing house in question was quite curt and cavalier towards him, so the former promised that he will never contact anyone employed by the major book publisher. Moreover, the publisher pays quite paltry royalties (I would like to call it as more of a pittance) to its authors and what is worse is that the payments are delayed by several months.

What are the lessons of the story? Never reject those who are promising authors for they may bring you glory and money. Teach your staffs to be courteous to all. Do not be as avaricious as the Roman emperors back in the day, especially when it comes to fiduciary matters. Do not ever treat aspiring authors like dirt.

GUESS WHO: Who is this young celebrity who has the bravado to show his/her intimate act to the internet world? According to my sources, who are avid social media users, they saw this young thespian doing the deed without compunction for it seemed that s/he was enjoying it with his/her partner, therefore throwing caution to the wind. As a result, our subject is fast becoming the talk of the town and his/her scandal video is gaining more traction than ever. In fairness to our honesty, peace.

What are the lessons of the story? Keep private matters private. Bedroom duties must not be broadcasted for the world to witness these. Maintain a wholesome image and do not embarrass the people who help build you up. Think of your family, your friends, and your mentors and fans before you do anything dastardly.

The world-renowned British TV journalist Malcolm Muggeridge was a celebrity who did not care much about God and religion. He did something he swore he would never do—become a Catholic.

What led to his conversion? He had an assignment to write about the late Mother Teresa of Calcutta. In the course of his talks and days of observation, he experienced a change of heart.

Muggeridge said: "Words cannot express how much I owe her. She showed me Christianity in action." His experience of conversion was written in his book entitled, "Something Beautiful for God."

Ask yourself: Would lukewarm and non-Catholics be so edified by your way of life as to want to become active Catholics?

In his encyclical "Redemptoris Missio" the late Pope St. John Paul II said: "People today put more trust in witnesses than in teachers...The witness of a Christian life is the first and irreplaceable form of evangelization."

In the spirit of this Sunday gospel, we pray that there will be more and more laborers—religious and lay people—to work in the Lord's harvest.

Father's Day. I recall how our late father Francisco, who was a district engineer—a.k.a. d'strict engineer—in the Department of Public Works and Highways (DPWH), would become cranky and irritable, thinking how he could send all five of us siblings to high school, then to college.

His crankiness and irritability were aggravated by his choleric Spanish blood (from the Llanes clan) and high blood!

But he possessed the Ilocano frugality with which he was able to stretch his meager income and saw all of us finish our courses.

We often rebelled against our father's authoritarian treatment but later in life, we learned the value of such discipline and how he wanted us to become God-fearing and worthwhile children.

Apart from giving a good example, one very important gift a father can give to his children is quality time. There's a subtle enemy that can erode family relationship, and that's work.

In the biblical book of the prophet Sirach, he says, "My son, take care of your father when he is old, grieve him not as long as he lives. Even if his mind fails, be considerate with him. For kindness to a father will not be forgotten, it will serve as a sin offering." (Sirach 3, 2-6).

Support seminarians. Seminarians are very important. We cannot have priests, missionaries and bishops if there are no seminarians simply because all priests and bishops start as seminarians. So let's support them.

Please contribute an amount or sponsor a seminarian's schooling for one year. (belsvd@gmail.com)

Ilocos Sur gov urges to preserve freedom for future generations

VIGAN CITY, Ilocos Sur (PIA) — Governor Jeremias “Jerry” C. Singson urged the public to preserve freedom “for us and for the future generations” on Monday morning, June 12.

The governor said this in his message during the commemoration of the 125th Anniversary of the Proclamation of Philippine Independence Day in the province held at the Plaza Salcedo in this city.

He reminded everyone that the Independence Day is a call to advance all laudable actions to preserve liberation towards servicing the community, the people, and the forthcoming citizenry.

“They [heroes] did this sacrifice to provide a very bright and independent future for us, their descendants. As we therefore inhabit the ashes of our heroes, we are challenged to do the same—a Philippines worthy for the next generations, a livable heritage province for our children’s children,” said Governor Singson.

To encourage the people, he added, “Create a ripple effect to change and inspire the lives of each one, an opportunity driven smart governance towards holistic development in mind, in word, and in deed.”

At the program, he was joined by Sangguniang Panlalawigan Members Art Oandasan, Third Ranches, Ronnie Rapanut, and Constante Benzon, and the Ilocos Sur Police Provincial Office headed by Provincial Director PCOL Marlo A. Castillo.

Heads and employees of local offices of the national government agencies including the Philippine Drug Enforcement Agency, Department of Education, Department of Environment and Natural Resources, among others, and the department heads and staff of the provincial capitol were also in attendance.

A wreath-laying and floral offering at the monument of Dr. Jose Rizal, and a 21-gun salute were also conducted during the celebration. (Aila Villanueva/PIA Ilocos Sur)

LGU-Cervantes, PVAO commemorate 78th anniversary of Battle of Bessang Pass

VIGAN CITY, Ilocos Sur (PIA) – The local government of Cervantes, in partnership with the Philippine Veterans Affairs Office (PVAO), led the commemoration of the 78th anniversary of the Victory of the Battle of Bessang Pass on Wednesday, June 14.

Mayor Pablito Benjamin Maggay II said the battle, which was won by Filipino and American forces, is considered the greatest Filipino victory during World War II.

It signaled the surrender of the Japanese Imperial Forces led by Tomoyuki Yamashita, and eventually the Philippine independence during that war.

He added, “Isabuhay natin sa araw araw para mapanindigan natin iyong pinaghirapan ng mga bayani natin. Hindi lang sana kaming mga taga-Cervantes ang nagsusulong ng Bessang Pass kung hindi lahat sana tayong Pilipino na tinatamasa ang kalayaan natin ngayon.”

The commemoration was held at the Bessang Pass Natural Landmark/Monument with over 200 individuals in attendance, including veterans and/or their families from the various towns in the province.

“Ngayon ay nagtipon-tipon tayo upang patuloy na ipagdiwang ang tagumpay ng mga Pilipino na nag-alay

La Union collects 210 bags of blood on World Blood Donor Day

SAN FERNANDO CITY, La Union – In celebration of World Blood Donor Day, the Provincial Government of La Union (PGLU), through its Provincial Health Office (PHO), successfully collected 210 bags of blood in different types during the simultaneous blood donation activities held Wednesday, June 14.

The blood donation activities were conducted in various locations which include the Congressman Franny Eriguel Hall, Sangguniang Panlalawigan Building, and Provincial Capitol, where 61 bags of blood were collected; San Juan Gymnasium with 88 bags; Philippine Red Cross Office with 44 bags; and Lorma Colleges with 17 bags.

It was organized by the PHO, in partnership with Ilocos Training and Regional Medical Center (ITRMC), Department of Health Ilocos (DOH-1), Philippine Dental Association (PDA), National Voluntary Blood Services Program (NVBSP), Philippine Red Cross, La Union Medical Center (LUMC), Lorma Laboratory, and Philippine Association of Medical Technologists (PAMET)-La Union.

“The observance of the World Blood Donor Day is a way to appreciate our blood donors and recognize the importance of blood donation in helping patients in need most especially those in emergency cases,” said Jonalyn Fernandez, provincial blood program coordinator, during an interview at the Provincial Capitol.

The collected blood from donors, who were mostly from the Bureau of Fire Protection, Philippine Coast Guard, Philippine National Police, and some “Ating panatilihin ang pagsisilbi bilang tagapangalaga ng batas at katarungan. Malinaw ang ating takdang tungkulin ang maglingkod sa ating mamamayan sa ating probinsya, magtaguyod sa seguridad sa ating komunidad, at magtanggol sa ating mga karapatan,” said PCol. Suerte.

La Union police mark 125th Independence Day

SAN FERNANDO CITY, La Union (PIA) – The La Union Police Provincial Office (LUPPO) raised the Philippine flag at Camp Diego Silang, in this city on Monday, in commemoration of the country’s 125th Independence Day on June 12.

In his message, PCol. Lambert Suerte, LUPPO provincial director, urged the strong police force of the province to remember and imitate the heroism of those who fought for the country’s independence from foreign invaders.

He also assured the constituents of the province that the LUPPO will remain vigilant to prevent crimes and to respond to any emergency.

Meanwhile, La Union Second District representative Dante Garcia, who graced the event as the guest of honor and speaker, paid tribute to the province’s modern heroes who continued to risk their lives for the country.

“Bigyan natin pagpupugay ang ating mga makabagong katipunero sa kasalukuyan gaya ng mga namumuno sa ating bansa, mga sundalo at pulis na patuloy na nangangalaga sa kapayapaan at kaligtasan ng mamamayan laban sa mga salot sa lipunan, ang ating mga doktor, nurses, at mga guro sa kanilang serbisyong hindi matutumbasan ng anumang halaga,” said Garcia.

Pangasinan pays tribute to local hero on Independence Day

L I N G A Y E N , Pangasinan (PIA)— The Provincial Government of Pangasinan observed the 125th Philippine Independence Day by paying tribute to the seventh governor of the province, Don Daniel Maramba, a local hero dubbed as the “Grand Old Man of Pangasinan.”

In a solemn and simple ceremony held on Monday at the Sison Auditorium here, Governor Ramon Guico III said the provincial government decided to pay tribute to Maramba to remember his heroism that contributed to the liberation of the country.

“We took a different approach to the celebration of our Independence Day today, to commemorate the life, works, and efforts of our local heroes because it seems that we have forgotten them, who have contributed a lot to the liberation not only of the province but the whole country,” Guico said.

Don Daniel Bautista Maramba was the municipal president (or mayor) of Sta. Barbara town from 1907 to 1908 and served as governor of Pangasinan from 1916 to 1922.

He was also Katipunero, as well as a congressman and senator that steered the province into greatness as the richest province in the country during his time.

Guico said it was also Maramba who initiated the construction of the Provincial Capitol Building in April 1917.

He said it was also during the time of Maramba that Pangasinan became the rice granary of the country and the first to pave the provincial roads with asphalt.

With so many contributions not only to the province, Guico said it is just right that

Dagupan City receives BHW manuals from DOH

DAGUPAN CITY (PIA) – The Department of Health (DOH) – Ilocos Region has begun distributing copies of the updated Barangay Health Workers (BHW) Reference Manual and BHW Manual on Health Policies and Services to BHWs of Ilocos Region.

The BHWs from Dagupan City were the first batch to receive their copies of these manuals after the DOH turned over these materials to the government in a ceremony held on June 7.

The newly updated manuals are designed to equip BHWs with the knowledge and concepts of DOH’s priority programs including the Maternal, Newborn, and Child Health and Nutrition (MNCHN), Reproductive Health (RH), Infant and Young Child Feeding (IYCF), Garantisadong Pambata (GP), communicable and non-communicable diseases, and healthy lifestyle.

In a statement, the DOH said that it is designed according to the life-cycle approach or from womb-to-tomb, and contains information on the roles of BHWs in implementing health interventions at the grassroots level.

It also includes the latest DOH information, education and communication (IEC) materials as well as recording and reporting forms.

In a message, DOH Ilocos regional director Paula Paz Sydiongco said, “Ang DOH ay patuloy na naglilingkod at itinataguyod ang inyong kapakanan upang kayo ay mabigyan ng sapat na kaalaman at makapagbigay ng sapat at kaukulang serbisyo sa inyong nasasakupan.”

“These manuals will provide you the existing national policies” “The provision of health needs is a whole of government and a whole of society approach and ensuring the highest possible level of health and well-being of patients and health workers in health facilities involves everyone’s mutual cooperation,” she stated during the awarding rites. A total of eleven (11) hospitals, and one (1) Drug Treatment and Rehabilitation Center out of the 14 health facilities evaluated, passed the GVA tool.

Eight (8) were public hospitals, three (3) were from the private sector, and one (1) is a drug treatment and rehabilitation center.

An electrocardiogram machine was given as a prize to each of the awardees.

DOH Assistant Regional Director Rodolfo Antonio M. Alborno assured that the regional office will support the awardees as they will automatically join the national awarding event on November 2023.

“Let us continue this meaningful collaborative partnership in making our health facilities green, safe, and climate-smart hospitals that reduce greenhouse gas emissions, achieve risk reduction, and are cost-efficient,” he stressed.

The three-star awardees were Ilocos Sur District Hospital -Narvacan with an average score of 77.03%; Ilocos Sur District Hospital - Tagudin with 81.56%; Ilocos Sur Medical Center with 81.56%; Candon City General Hospital - 77.05%; Bayambang District Hospital - 77.08%; Pangasinan Provincial Hospital - 76.15%; Lingayen District Hospital - 76.03%; Ilocos Sur District Hospital -Bessang Pass Cervantes - 76.01%; and Laoag City General Hospital, 81.40%.

The four-star awardees were Laoag City General Hospital with 81.40% average score, Metro Vigan Hospital with 94.17% and Dagupan Drug and Rehabilitation Center, 94.60%.

The Black Nazarene Hospital of San Nicolas, Ilocos Norte obtained the highest average score of 98.41% and was the sole recipient of the five-star award.

Regional HFDU Head Cheryl D. Buhong said that the DOH regional office provided capacity-building activities to all the awardees, including other hospitals in ensuring their health facilities are green, safe, and climate-resilient. (GLEN S. RAMOS/DOH Ilocos Region) ng kanilang buhay at lakas para makamit natin ang kalayaan,” said Colonel Bartolome Santiago, president of the Veterans Federation of the Philippines-Second District Ilocos Sur.

He added, “Huwag nating limutin ang sakripisyo nila para sa bansang Pilipinas, ikwento natin sa mga anak at apo appropriate tools at magsisilbing gabay ninyo to effectively deliver basic health services gaya ng mga tamang pamamaraan ng pakikitungo sa mga kliyente at ang tamang pagsasangguni o referral for appropriate health services sa ating mga pampublikong pagamutan,” she said.

Sydiongco also extended her gratitude to the BHWs for their support in the implementation of DOH programs in the communities and the current Measles-Rubella and Oral Polio Vaccine Supplemental Immunization Activity in which Dagupan City recorded 100.05% as of June 13.

“Dahil po ito sa inyong pagsusumikap kasama ang inyong lokal na pamahalaan upang mabakunahan lahat ang ating mga bata laban sa tigdas at polio,” she added.

City Mayor Belen Fernandez encouraged the BHWs to read and put into heart the contents of the manual.

“Lahat ng kinakailangan ninyong malaman bilang isang BHW ay nasa inyong mga manual. Kailangan ninyo itong basahin at kung maaari ay mamemorize ninyo ito dahil ito ay napakaimportante sa inyong trabaho,” the mayor stated.

Fernandez also assured to increase the BHWs allowance to P6,000 monthly as a recognition of the performance of their duties.

BHW Regional Coordinator Ma. Lourdes Ducusin said that all BHWs in the region will soon have their copies of the manuals.

She said, “We hope that this manual will serve as a useful tool for our BHWs as they continue to work towards the protection and health not only of mothers and children but the whole community as well.”

“The contribution of our BHWs to public health is invaluable. And with this manual in their hands, may they yield even greater benefits to the communities they serve,” Ducusin concluded. (April Bravo/PIA Pangasinan)

World Blood Donor Day is celebrated every June 14, designated as an annual event by the World Health Assembly in 2005, which provides an opportunity to celebrate and appreciate voluntary blood donors around the world.

This year’s theme for the celebration is: “Give blood, give plasma, share life, share often,” which focuses on patients who need transfusion support, where the role of every donor who shares their valuable gift of blood or plasma is highlighted. (Kemberly Maala/PIA Region 1)

Pangasinan should learn from Maramba and give honor to his willingly-endured hardships so that Pangasinenses could live in peace.

“We can never move forward if we don’t know our past, because the past or history can always teach us to make wiser decisions for the present and for the future,” Guico said.

Likewise, Guico reminded all Pangasinenses to contribute to nation-building by learning and thinking of the past, acting on the present, and securing the future of the province and of the country.

He also asked the public to be united in fighting the present oppressors such as poverty, ignorance, and illegal acts, among others, for a more progressive Pangasinan.

“Isantabi po natin ang self-interest and work together for the common interest,” Guico added.

This year, the official theme for the 125th anniversary of the Philippine Independence celebration is “Kalayaan, Kinabukasan, Kasaysayan”. (Elsha Marie Arguel/PIA Pangasinan)

NEWS BRIEF
CGB conducts tree planting activity in celebration of 16th Charter Day and Arbor Day

As the City of Batac ushers its 16th Charter Anniversary on June 23, 2023, and in observance of Arbor Day, a tree planting activity was conducted today, June 17.

The activity took place across four sites, specifically at the Small Water Impounding Projects (SWIP) situated in Barangay Dariwdiw, Baoa East, Mabaleng, and Magnuang. The activity was actively participated by city officials and employees, along with personnel from the BJMP Batac District Jail, City of Batac Police Station, BFP Batac, and the barangay officials of the barangays.

With an aim to maintain the city’s greenery and preserve its watersheds, over 2000 mahogany seedlings were planted across the four sites. This endeavor underscores the commitment of the City Government of Batac, under the leadership of Mayor Albert D. Chua, to environmental stewardship and sustainability.

As we honor our 16th Charter Anniversary, we also highlight the importance of our natural resources and the role each citizen plays in their conservation.

Arbor Day is celebrated in the City of Batac every 3rd Saturday of June each year pursuant to City Ordinance No. 3SP 2013-04.

“Sandro” Marcos III Representative Angelo Marcos Barba as well as Burgos Mayor Crescente Garcia, DA - RFO1’s Regional Executive Director Dr. Annie Q. Bares, RTD for Operations Engr. Dennis Tactac, OIC-Field Operations Division Chief, Ms. Analiza Ramos, and INREC Chief Mr. Medardo Pablo.

16 municipalities and two cities in Ilocos Norte received agri interventions through the banner programs and special programs of the Department of Agriculture’s Field Operations Division, namely the High Value Crops Development Program (HVCDP), Corn Banner, Rice Banner, Organic Agriculture Program, and the Special Area for Agricultural Development (SAAD) Program Phase 2.

Farm machinery such as four-wheel drive tractor, hammer mills, combine harvesters, hauling trucks, multi-purpose cultivators, pump and engine sets, shredder, trailer, and water pumps as well as farm inputs such as knapsack sprayers, fertilizers, vegetable seeds, flower inducers, mango bagging materials, ruminant grower feeds, drugs and biologics, plastic crates, plastic drums and net mesh amounting to a total of Php11,777,686.02 were distributed to farmers in the first district.

Meanwhile, pump and engine sets, knapsack sprayers, plastic crates, fertilizers, varied vegetable seeds, plastic drums, net mesh, flower inducer, precision seeder, and multi-cultivators totaled Php7,147,446 in the second district.

The distribution of farm interventions is an ongoing project of the DA that aims to modernize production and post-production operations in the farming sector through the use of modern farm machinery and equipment. (DA-Rafis Ilocos Region)

"We're trying to now put them all together in one unified 'life stages' approach. So, iyon ang pino-propose ko sa President. I think the way to approach it is a life stage and umpisa doon sa buntis," he added.

During an earlier sectoral meeting with the President, Herbosa noted the chief executive commented: "Who's taking care of the pregnant teenager who needs to understand what micronutrients to take when they're pregnant? What type of food to eat?"

"Wala eh. So that's another thing that's been—nautos na rin sa akin iyan. That's gonna be the Department of Health's activity," he pointed out, adding that they would be coming out with a plan with other government agencies to address stunting and malnutrition in the country.

Based on figures from the Food and Nutrition Research Institute, stunting rates for ages 0 to 23 months old is 21.6 percent or one in five children while for children under five years old, the stunting rate is 28.7 percent.

For malnutrition rate, Herbosa said the children in daycare facilities, which is handled and supervised by DepEd, it is pegged at 20 percent.

"So one in five kids, I need to feed properly with correct nutrients," the DOH Secretary said.

"Ang sabi ko sa President, pagdugtong-dugtungin natin iyan parang barbeque – safety net iyong huli. Kasi iyong sa school age which is the emphasis before of the past administration, huli na ang brain development kaya mababa ang IQ (intelligence quotient) ng mga Pilipino," Herbosa said, noting that with the first 1,000-day approach is the best way to assist breastfeeding mothers via the voucher or the food stamp program.

Herbosa said he is thankful that the Marcos administration is focusing on the hunger mitigation program because it would mean less problems in the health sector.

"I'm glad that the President and Secretary Rex are focusing on food stamps and hunger because I will have less problems in health. Kasi tandaan ninyo, nutrition is related to wellness. That means, ito rin iyong mga batang magkaka-TB, magkaka-bronchopneumonia, maospital," he said.

"If I have good nutrition in children, hindi mapupuno ang ospital kasi malulusog iyong mga bata, makapasok sila sa eskwela, ga-graduate sila ng K-12, pwede silang magtrabaho at hindi sila sakitin," Herbosa added. (PND)

San Nicolas pioneers ownership registration of farm machinery and equipment in Ilocos Norte

Heeding the call for a national registration of ownership of agricultural and fisheries machinery and equipment as spelled out in the DA-DILG Joint Memorandum Circular No. 2018-02, the municipality of San Nicolas in Ilocos Norte conducted its 4-day registration of various agricultural and fisheries machinery and equipment in Brgy. San Guillermo, Catuguing, San Nicolas, Ilocos Norte starting June 14, 2023 to June 17, 2023.

First among 21 municipalities and 2 cities in Ilocos Norte to draft its resolution, the LGU of San Nicolas headed by its active and supportive Mayor Mike Hernando pioneered the implementation of its resolution and now became the model municipality in implementing this national guideline.

Administered by the DA-Philippine Center for Postharvest Development and Mechanization and the DA-Regional Field Office I thru the Regional Agricultural Engineering Division (RAED), in cooperation with the LGU San Nicolas through its office of the Municipal Agriculturist, the registration of the various agri-fishery machinery and equipment is a one-time registration with payment of Php100 per unit renewable in five years at no cost.

Mr. Nicomedez Luis, 54, a farmer from Brgy. Catuguing and owner of 1.4 has. farm lot planted with rice, corn, garlic and other high value crops voluntarily registered his 4 units of water pumps which of these two units were acquired through his own money while the other two units were given by the government.

Finding this program beneficial to farmers like him since he was able to secure ownership of the said units, the registration would also provide better information to the government on how government resources will be equally distributed to beneficiaries.

Among the list of farm machinery and equipment that are required to be registered include tractors and their attachments, power tillers, seeders, transplanters, harvesting machines, greenhouses, slaughtering equipment, milling machines like dryers, threshers, cold storage, reefer vans, etc owned by any individual, registered farmer cooperatives and farmer associations, private entities which are registered under SEC, DTI, DOLE or CDA.

With the registration fee of P100 inclusive of the cost of issuance of QR code sticker by the Municipal Agriculture Office, collected payments shall be reverted to the farmers in the form of farm assistance like the provision of fuel subsidies including the repair and replacement of the units whichever may be applicable.

To date, the LGU-San Nicolas was able to register around 80 units of various farm machinery and equipment owned by around 50 farmer individuals, cooperatives, and farmer associations.###

Region 1 Police celebrate 125th Independence Day

CAMPBGENOSCAR M FLORENDO- Police Brigadier General John C Chua, Regional Director of Police Regional Office 1 (PRO1) spearheaded the 125th Independence Day Celebration with the theme: "Kalayaan, Kinabukasan, Kasaysayan" held at the PRO1 Grandstand earlier this morning (June 12).

The four provinces also participated in the simultaneous raising of the Flag in relation to the commemoration of Independence Day, As the Regional Director read the message of the Chief, Philippine National Police, Police General Benjamin Casuga Acorda Jr.

In his message, the Chief, PNP mentioned to promote the spirit of unity and love to our country as a reward and sign of gratitude to all the heroes who have fought for our country's Independence.

"Sa ating hanay sa pambansang pulisya ng pilipinas, malaki ang ating pananagutan upang panatilihin ang kapayapaan at kaayusan sa ating bansa. Sundan natin ang diwa ng paglilingkod at pag-aalay ng buhay ng ating mga bayani. Ating gampanan ng buong puso, galing at giting ang pagsisilbi bilang tagapangalaga ng batas at katarungan. Malinaw ang ating takdang tungkulin: Ang maglingkod sa mamamayang pilipino, magtaguyod ng seguridad sa ating mga komunidad, at magtanggol sa ating mga karapatan.

PGen Acorda Jr. added.

He also recognized the dedication and sacrifice of every PNP personnel to their duty in making the community safe and peaceful and as a great model of discipline and professionalism.

Meanwhile, PBGEN CHUA led the ceremonial releasing of white dove as a symbol of peace and unity in the whole Ilocos Region and in honor of the great heroes of our country. ##### projects to support farm-to-market produce, increase agricultural productivity, and boost income of agrarian reform beneficiaries.

"Through the provision of various farm mechanization projects and support services, farmers will be empowered to grow their organizations and engage into agribusiness enterprises," Estrella said.

He also assured the farmers that the department will continuously provide them with various support services they need in order to increase their income and agricultural productivity.

The farmers received a total of 411 farm machineries and equipments which included 4WD tractors (40hp), brush cutters with harvester, hand tractors with trailer, hauling trucks, knapsack sprayers, multifunction tillers or cultivators, refrigerated vans, rice reapers, and water pumps. DOLE Ilocos notes 760 HOTS at Kalayaan Job Fair 2023

SAN FERNANDO CITY (PIA) –Some 760 job seekers were hired-on-the-spot or HOTS during the 2023 Kalayaan Job Fair staged by the Department of Labor and Employment (DOLE) in the Ilocos Region on June 12.

For this year's Kalayaan Job Fair, DOLE partnered with 205 employers and arranged eight venues region-wide, of which five were located in Pangasinan and one venue for each province, to offer a total of 28,571 work opportunities among job seekers in the region.

According to Labor Information Officer Justin Paul Marbella of DOLE, the recorded number of HOTS is 26 percent of the 2,785 registered job seekers.

Of the number, 440 individuals were HOTS in Pangasinan; 163 in Ilocos Sur; 102 in Ilocos Norte; and 55 in La Union.

Most of the HOTS were employed as community-based system monitoring field officers, production operators, sales agent, stock clerk, processing crew, customer service representatives, and service crew.

There were also job seekers who were hired under the Government Internship Program of DOLE.

Further, Zairine Elisha B. Villano, a 19-year-old senior high school graduate, is one of the HOTS from La Union, hired as a service crew of a popular fastfood company.

"Hindi ko po inaasahan talaga na makukuha po ako agad, sinubukan ko lang po mamili at mag-apply sa mga trabahong mayroon po dito sa jobs fair kaya nakakatuwa po talaga," Villano said in an interview.

Meanwhile, for job seekers who were not hired during the day of the event and whose applications were subjected for further screening and review, Marbella said that the standard operating procedure is for employers to later advise whether the applicant is qualified for the job or not.
